

Case Study

Silver Fitzgerald is a highly regarded Cambridge legal practice with several years experience of advocacy and legal representation.

The firm comprises of a team of friendly law partners and support staff offering expert legal advice covering every aspect of current law including Family Law, Child Law, Civil Litigation, Employment Law and disputes between parties.

Their dedicated legal team combine this expertise with a high level of resourcing to give their clients a professional and efficient service. They combine many years of law practice with team members familiar with all necessary Regulatory Compliance & Employment, Divorce, Family and Children, Personal Injury & Contract Disputes.

From Cambridge the firm is able to offer legal services regionally across Cambridgeshire, East Anglia and nationally if needed.

Silver Fitzgerald Solicitors' have been Cognito clients since July 2000. In this time they have been impressed with the system. Overall Helen Melville-Smith Practice Manager for the firm thought that the software handles Trust Accounting particularly well. She feels that the software certainly makes complicated areas such as the trust accounting so much easier for her and her colleagues. She says "it has given us the security in knowing that we can easily rectify any problems associated with this highly complicated area of law".

If you would like any further information please call the Cognito Office on 0121 5436996 or email: sales@cognitosoftware.co.uk